Driver Killed As Auto Skids

Gerald Tegel, 22, Dies After Car Hits Steps At Blast Furnace Plant

A Granite City man was killed and nine other persons suffered injuries as 20 traffic accidents occurred on Quad-City area streets and highways since Monday.

Gerald E. Tegel, 22, of 2549 Lynch avenue, died at 2:40 a.m. today in the emergency room of St. Elizabeth Hospital of injuries sustained when his auto skidded 162 feet on wet pavement and struck concrete steps leading to the main gate of the Granite City Steel Co.'s blast furnace division at 1:50 a.m.

GERALD E. TEGEL

He suffered a fractured skull and had a large laceration to the top of the head as he was thrown against the door of the passenger's side of his 1965 two-door auto. He was driving in a westerly direction. It was the ninth traffic fatality recorded in the Quad-City area in a western direction.

Lifelong Resident
Mr. Tegel, a native and lifelong resident of Granite City, was employed at the blast furnace plant for four years including a period of service with the armed forces. He completed his military service last November.

His wife, Mrs. Gail Tegel, and daughter, Sherri Tegel, 10, were visiting Mrs. Tegel's mother in Arizona at the time of the accident.

Other survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tegel Sr. of Granite City; four brothers, William, Robert, Joseph and Peter Tegel Jr. of Granite City; three sisters, Sandra, Sharon and Anita Tegel of Granite City; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tegel and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gardner of Granite City; and his great-grandparents, Charles Long and Mary Long.

Bigger Special Class Addition At Lake Studied

The Granite City school board last night approved a supplemental architectural contract enabling the scheduled Lake grade school special education addition to be expanded from four to six rooms.

Architects Henry Gabriel and Sylvester Dulligoff are designing the addition.

Due to fund authorizations by the state, there may be enough money to add two extra rooms, one a classroom and the other to be used as a multi-purpose room for handicapped pupils.

Sept. 1 School Start
A Sept. 1-June 4 calendar for the next school year was adopted.

Deciding on staffing for the 1970-71 school year, the board created the post of Central junior high school assistant principal at 110% of base pay over one to six years of service.

A position previously established but not filled, administrative assistant for business, is to be activated, with applications sought.

Two new posts for teaching educationally handicapped were created, and additional special education personnel will be considered at the next meeting. Next month's board sessions were set for April 8 and 26.

Principal Intern
An elementary principal internship position was established, with a different person to be appointed each year. There will be no guarantee that principal position is available after internship, but such service if effective could strengthen an employee's application for promotion.

Reconsideration of Depot Shutdown Urged by Smith

(Special from Washington)

Pentagon officials were asked in a meeting at Washington Tuesday to reconsider its order to shut down the Granite City Army Depot or to provide data supporting the order. U.S. Sen. Ralph T. Smith (R-Ill.) said at Washington today.

RUNAROUND RAIL LINE shown in the center of this aerial photo skiffs excavation beneath tracks for the Broadway underpass at Venice. The "bend" in the rail line carries Norfolk & Western, New York Central and GM&O trains around the excavation, and will be reconstructed to the west of the main line when work has progressed far enough. A similar bend in the light line is detour in County road, to carry vehicular traffic around underpass work. Excavation work is under way by Nelson Construction Co.

Feder & Huber Opens New Furniture Store

The firm completed renovations and moved into its new quarters yesterday. A lease arrangement for the building was signed Monday.

The store, which formerly was located at 1908 State street, affords a larger display area and has a free parking lot for customers adjacent to the building on Delmar avenue. The company had been located on State street for more than 25 years.

City OK's Cost-Plus for Sewer Replacement

A quick construction start at cost-plus was favored over a firm bid by Granite City council members for replacement of the Lynch avenue sanitary sewer lines, even though there might be a delay in obtaining all necessary easements.

Award of a contract to A. H. Seebold, based on a cost-plus proposal submitted last September, was voted during Monday night's meeting, even though G. H. Sternberg, another contractor who had also submitted a cost-plus proposal in September, said he could be ready with a firm bid in five days. The council does not meet again until April 6.

The council decision to proceed with the cost-plus proposal rather than seek new firm bids, was based on the report by City Engineer Kenneth Kleberger that it would take him a week to prepare firm bid specifications and at least two weeks for contractors to prepare the bids.

It was after Kleberger's report that Sternberg, who was in the audience, said he could submit a firm price bid in five days that would probably save the city considerable money.

Wide Range of Estimates
Cost estimates on replacement of the sewer lines in the Cleverly area have ranged from $208,000 to $375,000.

The vote for award of the contract to A. H. Seebold, who has been doing the sewer replacement since 1966, was 11-0-3. Aldermen Green and Baker were absent because of illness. Voting for the cost-plus proposal were Norn, Basch, Boyd, Adams, Moerlein, Parmley, Robertson, Paulos, Daves, Morien and Schuler. Opposed were Rutledge, Whitmer and Jarrett.

In urging a recall for firm bids, Sternberg pointed out that the city would be paying for the work on cost-plus contracts, and he added that contractors are prone to use top-rate workers on firm bid projects rather than on cost-plus contracts, and that the burden for inspection to hold cost-plus totals rests with the owner, or the city in this case.

With the award of the contract, council members took immediate action for easements, instructing Assistant City Attorney Hartman to arrange for procurement as quickly as possible.

Under the previous arrangement with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers to repair the sewer lines, the city was to take place downtown.

Services will be held at the centrally located Niedringhaus Methodist Church from noon until one o'clock under the sponsorship of the Quad-City Ministerial Association.

The Rev. John L. Adams of Belleville, pastor of Christ United Church of Christ, will deliver the sermon on the topic "When A Thief Lifts Up His Eyes," and other ministers will take part on the program.

Music is to be furnished by a group of high school students.

Stearns Park Facilities Ok'd at Cost of $14,500

Granite City park commissioners authorized improvements at George Stearns park at a cost of about $14,500 during a meeting last night.

Included in the plans are a horseshoe court, basketball goals, tennis courts and later a concrete shuffle board court.

The park board also authorized rental of the Wilson Park ice rink next season to hockey teams from 10 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. at the rate of $35 per hour. It was reported that one group has asked for use of the rink for the late period for 20 weeks.

Use of the rink during the "dead time" hours will provide additional revenue for park and recreation purposes, it was noted.

Installation of new partitions in the boys' and girls' dressing rooms at the Wilson Park swimming pool also was approved.

A contract was awarded to the Midwest Floor Co. to refinish the gym floor at the Lincoln place Community Center at a cost of $1567.

Purchase of 45 season tickets to the St. Louis Municipal Opera for use by park district residents this summer was approved.

Plans were made to purchase a grill, hot plate, sink, hot water heater and two refrigerators for the concession stand at Worthing Park from various suppliers at a cost of $227.

The board granted requests for use of Wilson Park for an annual day camp for retarded children from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. June 15-28, and for a picnic at the park on the Garden Study club starting at 9:30 a.m. May 6.

Harold Brown, superintendent, was authorized to attend a Great Lakes district park and recreation conference April 26-28 at Milwaukee at a cost not to exceed $175.

Census Forms to be Mailed on April 1st

Ray B. O'Neill, district manager of the 1970 Census of Population and Housing in Illinois, says: "Don't mail your census form until Wednesday, April 1, but be sure to mail it on that day."

The official count of the U.S. population will be for April 1. That is why it is so important that every questionnaire list all persons living in the household on that day, that it does not list anyone who moved away or died a day or so before, but moved in or a baby born on that day.

The director suggests that filling out the census form be made a family project, with everyone supplying the correct information about himself. He adds a word of caution: "Don't look up a pencil and start marking until you have read the yellow sheet of instructions carefully. And be sure to use a pencil, so if you make a mistake, it can be easily erased."

Tuesday Deadline For Homestead Exemption Forms

Property owners eligible for the new homestead exemption of $1500 in assessment of real estate have only through Tuesday to file application for the reduction, Granite City Township Assessor James Barton warned today.

The exemption may be claimed by persons 65 years of age or older who occupy the property for which the exemption is sought. The applicant must have been 65 or older on or before Jan. 1 this year.

Application forms are available at the assessors' offices throughout the area. In Granite City they may be obtained from Barton's office, 1908 State street, where applicants also will be assisted in filling out the forms and given advisory service without charge.

Forms Available
Venice township residents may obtain the forms from the office of Assessor John Bridick at 401 Madison avenue. Assessor Joseph Cohan has the applications in Nameoki township and Chouteau residents may get the applications from Assessor James Reeves, who may be contacted at 254-5809.

All applicants must provide a warranty deed to verify property ownership. Barton said his office is making photostat copies of these without charge. If an individual does not have a deed, there is a $1 fee to obtain one from the county recorder's office.

Barton said that contrary to some rumors, persons eligible for the exemption do not have to be retired to qualify. He said the law allowing the exemption, approved in the last legislative session, is not based on financial need and the exemption in no way places any lien against the property for which the exemption is sought.

U.S. Accepts Ogilvie Plan to End Freeze

A plan by Gov. Ogilvie to end the freeze on local highway funds in Madison and St. Clair counties has been accepted by the U.S. Transportation Department, U.S. Senator Ralph T. Smith (R-Ill.) announced at Washington yesterday.

Senator Smith said government approval of the program would mean the release of $25 million in highway funds as the governor's plan is approved by labor unions, and community groups.

Smith said the approval of building contractors, but has not been accepted by union labor groups or the Metro-East Labor Council, both of which have requested revisions in the plan. The proposal advanced by the governor which provides for training minority workers for construction jobs must have unanimous approval of all groups involved before it is effective. The freeze was initiated on grounds that not enough blacks were employed on highway construction jobs and that construction costs in the bi-county area are too high.

The new rate for Granite City township is set at 14.5 cents, an increase of 4.8 cents over the 1968 rate of 9.7 cents, Miss Hootz announced.

Levee Rate Lacking
Thus, on the basis of new tax rates set for five of the six tax districts of Granite City, the ship, bills will be extended on a total of $5,688 for those five districts, compared to a total of $4,819 for those same districts last year. Yet to be added

Urges Letter-Writing Campaign

A public hearing on the federal order to close the Granite City Army Depot will be sought by a special organization of veterans' service groups, according to plans made at a meeting Monday night at Granite City VFW Post 1300.

A wide-spread letter-writing campaign aimed at U.S. senators, congressmen and governors of both Illinois and Missouri and to President Nixon was urged by Dale Mortland of Alton, chairman of the organization. Tim Burns, business agent for Locals 149, 149A and 149B of the Operating Engineers' club at the depot, John Moran, commander of VFW Post 1300, and others.

About 60 veterans and representatives of auxiliaries from Madison county and St. Louis at the meeting were asked to relay the plea to their members, to their children, to their relatives and friends, to their churches and to all organizations.

"We need everyone at a public hearing—veterans organizations, churches, all of the community. Let them know we want this depot," Burns told the group.

He said the people at a public hearing were effective in keeping Chicago's O'Hare international airport open.

GC Council Opposes Closing of Depot

The Granite City council adopted a resolution opposing any shutdown of the Granite City Army Depot at a meeting Monday night.

The council went on record as strenuously resisting any effort to cease normal activities at the depot or any termination of said normal activities by the Department of Defense.

Copies of the resolution were forwarded to President Nixon, Sens. Charles Percy and Ralph Smith, Congressman Melvin Price and the secretary of the Army.

He said the people at a public hearing were effective in keeping Chicago's O'Hare international airport open.

Burns said he can get the public hearing, but we need the

8 Undergo Surgery At Local Hospital

The following are recovering from surgery which they underwent since Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital:

Berntha Becherer, 2117 Woodlawn avenue; Arline M. Shane, 2905 Mayville road; Magdalen E. Troeckler, 105 Cynthia lake; Helen A. Mangoff, 1208 Madison avenue; Charles C. Altered to save money, he said. "We don't need three men (supervisors) watching one (a worker)," he said. "This is where the expense is, I fail to see where the economy is in moving."

Political Football?
After Burns noted that the closing may be a political football, Mortland commented that the President expects to keep two Republican senators and a Republican governor in Illinois, and political pressure can be applied to obtain a hearing.

Mortland told the group that the move effects more than 1200 employees in Illinois and more than 250 in Missouri, and that about $100 million a year would be leaving the area. "We can do the jobs as well, if not better, than anyone in Colorado, Pennsylvania or elsewhere."

He said Sen. Ralph T. Smith has promised to try to get the depot, and said if not, the property would be turned over to the cities and to Madison county.

Stanley was stabbed about the face, head, both arms, upper right leg and chest with an ice pick which Venice police said was used by Mrs. Stanley in a fight at the Mercedia street address about 1:40 a.m. Monday.

Venice Patrolman John Kittel, who responded to a call to the Stanley residence to quell a family fight, was stabbed in the upper left arm and cut on the left hand when he tried to separate the man and his wife. Stanley was admitted to the hospital.

The woman fled the scene complaints had been filed after police took the ice pick against her. Preliminary hearing has been scheduled for April 8 in magistrate court.

Kiwanis Install Hall as Prexy

Norman Hall was installed as president of the Kiwanis Club Monday night at a dinner meeting held at the Rose Bowl with Kiwanis Lt. Gov-elect Melvin Gillie serving as installing officer.

Other officers taking part in the ceremonies were Sam Stookey, second vice-president, George Grove, first vice-president and Ed Moore the retiring president.

A committee was formed to make a nomination of an outstanding citizen of the community to receive the Kiwanis "Citizen of the Year" award.

Named to the committee were William Seebold, Ed Moore, Phillip Thies and Freeman Wolfe. Anyone who wishes to submit a nominee is requested to send the information to a member of the club.

The final selection will be announced on May 23 and the honoree will be given an award at a banquet planned for August. A discussion followed on the annual boat races scheduled for August with William Seebold serving as chairman and Paul Jellian as co-chairman. Tickets will be available on April 20.

MORE ABOUT City OK's

Before award of the contract, the council adopted a resolution requesting the $168,000 allocated by the Corps of Engineers for the repair job under Public Law 875. It was approved with Aldermen Rutledge and Jarrett dissenting.

In discussing the resolution, Mayor Partney pointed out he had talked to the contractor, A. H. Seebold, and had been given a $350,000 cost figure. "The Corps of Engineers doesn't want to do the repair job and will gladly turn it over to the city, but where will the city get the remainder of the money?"

He added that the council should explain to the contractor that there is a financial problem and that the city probably will have to borrow money at prime interest rates to carry the city since the OEP will take about a year to pay the $168,000.

"We've applied to the OEP for $194,000 to repair other sewer breaks. I don't know how we'll get it," the mayor added. The mayor also said he was not certain the council could use the $167,000 Nameoki area sewer lines reserve fund which is for the original sewer project in the Nameoki area and does not cover the Spalding avenue extension which was installed by the Cloverview subdivision developer.

Partney said approval for use of the reserve fund would be needed from 60% of the bondholders. "The bondholders could file suit that would kill the city's credit rating which now is 'A'."

Friends of Library At SIU-SW Elect

J. Homer Kennedy, president of the Edwardsville National Bank and Trust Co., has been elected president of the Southern Illinois University Friends of the Library. He succeeds Mrs. James L. Reed, also of Edwardsville, who will continue on the board as secretary of the Edwardsville division of the Friends of the Library.

Re-elected vice-president and chairman of the Carbondale division was Mrs. Alexander R. MacMillan. Mrs. John E. King, Carbondale, was elected secretary.

Re-elected members-at-large of the SIU Friends of the Library were William Alderfer, Springfield; Charles Feinberg, Detroit; R. Buckminster Fuller, Carbondale; Philip Sang, Chicago; and Mrs. John Page Wham, Contra Costa.

Newly-elected Edwardsville division members include Mrs. George Gillespie, Mrs. Harry A. McLean and Mrs. John McCanna, Collinsville; Mrs. A. Rudolph Green and Mrs. Nicholas Jost, Alton; Mrs. Edward Herrmann, Highland; Henry D. Karandjeff, Granite City; and Mrs. Lyman Ross, St. Louis.

The city attorney added that it was feasible that the city would have to maintain the sewer lines in service in order to collect the fees needed to retire the bonds.

Alderman Morrien, chairman of the Finance committee, said he had talked to a bond attorney in Chicago and was advised the city could use funds that are not needed to meet bond retirement and interest costs.

Scroggins also was called upon for a legal opinion on the September cost-plus replacement bid. The lawyer said that if specifications had not been changed and the bidder would abide by his proposal he could see no problems.

Nann commented that he as an alderman did not want to get in the same position as level district trustees who were indicted last week over means in which they had awarded contracts. Scroggins pointed out the city had advertised for bids, "but there is a calculated risk in using the reserve sewer funds."

MORE ABOUT Reconsideration

depot shutdown cannot be averted, federal officials should make surplus property at the depot available for public use. Referring to Monday's meeting with Secretary Laird, Senator Smith said:

"I told the Secretary that these two facilities in particular are vital to the economy of their respective communities, and that closing them will place a tremendous burden on the people of our state."

Illinois' Hill Hard "I don't know why it is that Illinois was hit so hard by these closings, but I intend to find out," Smith said. "Surely the Defense Department could have brought about economies which we all favor by closing some facilities in other states."

"I insisted that at the very least, Laird instruct the Office of Economic Adjustment in the Department of Defense to contact local officials and business and civic leaders in Granite City and in Forest Park in order to ease the economic impact of the loss of jobs resulting from the closing of the facilities in those two communities."

"At Secretary Laird's suggestion, I have today written Donald F. Bradford, Director of the Office of Economic Adjustment in the Defense Department, urging him to set up immediate meetings with the appropriate officials in Granite City and Forest Park."

MECCA Asks Status of Freeze, Airport

Gov. Richard Ogilvie will be requested by the Metro-East Chamber of Commerce Association (MECCA) to report on what has been accomplished toward eliminating the federal freeze on highway funds in Madison and St. Clair counties and what is being done about establishing a major airport in the area, it was decided at a meeting of the association in Edwardsville Monday night.

MECCA members decided to send the letter after several members protested that the freeze is still unresolved and no definite action has been taken on the airport project although the governor's office has announced repeated promises of progress.

Gov. Ogilvie and U. S. Sen. Ralph T. Smith have reported on numerous occasions that the freeze is near an end. The federal fund freeze was applied in July, 1968, on grounds that not enough minority workers were employed on highway construction jobs and that construction costs in the two counties were too high. Madison and St. Clair counties are the only two counties in the country which is under the freeze order.

Wants Fund Commitment
Robert W. Yeates, executive vice-president of the Greater Alton Association of Commerce, urged the association to also demand a commitment that money withheld from highway jobs during the freeze eventually be spent on roads in the area and not permanently lost. It has been estimated that $100 millions in highway work has been held up in the two counties since the freeze was initiated.

Yeates, who was supported by other members, emphasized that motorists are paying federal taxes for highway construction, and in addition to losing the construction work in this area are having their taxes used to build roads in other places.

Yeates told the meeting that he had received a "verbal commitment" from a representative of the governor "that they would make it up to us," but that he believed the association should insist on a firm agreement. He suggested that federal money that normally would be allotted to the bi-county area could be placed in escrow and would therefore be available later when the freeze is lifted.

Question Escrow Fund
Some members questioned the possibility of an escrow fund since money allocated in fiscal appropriations cannot be held over from one year to another.

The association members also are seeking assurances that if a second major airport is built in the St. Louis metropolitan area it will be established on the Illinois side of the river. One member commented that while Ogilvie has promised an all-out effort to get the airport for the Illinois area "we can read between the lines that nothing is happening."

Members pointed out that John Robison, the governor's transportation adviser, told MECCA last November that he hoped to have a report on the airport status by the first of the year.

MORE ABOUT Quad-City Tax

however, is the rate for the levee district which was 38.1 cents last year. With the $4.89 increase of the other five agencies, this provided the overall total rate of $5.21 for the 1968 tax year. When the levee district rate is added to those of the other five Granite City agencies this year, the total will depend upon the change yet to be made in extending the new levee rate.

Biggest Rise in Venice
Largest total increase of any specific Quad-City area was announced for that part of Venice township embracing the city of Venice and Venice School District 3. The combined tax rate of seven taxing agencies in the city of Venice jumped to $5.08 per $100 assessed valuation from last year's $4.46—an overall increase of 62.9 cents.

The big jump in the Venice area rate resulted from an increase of 54.2 cents per $100 assessed valuation for Venice school district 3 which has a new 1969 rate of $2.89. Last year's rate was $2.29. Bulk of the school district increase was in the educational fund levy which rose from $1.65 last year to $2.05, the full amount of a 40-cent rate increase authorized by a special referendum held last October.

Miss Hotz also announced a substantial jump in the new tax rate of the city of Venice, set at $1.13 this year, up 10.4 cents over last year's rate of $1.027. Principal rate increases were in the garbage fund, library fund and fire protection fund.

Venice park district has a new rate of 21.1 cents, up .3 of one cent, but the township rate rose to 13.9 cents from last year's 11.2 cents, an increase of 2.7 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The township's road and bridge fund rate was unchanged at 2.2 cents.

The total Venice rate of $5.08 also includes the county rate of 35.5 cents, which is paid by all taxpayers, and the levee district rate which has not been determined. Thus it is probable that the combined Venice rate, like that of Granite City, also may increase several cents when the new levee rate is fixed.

In Madison, new tax rates include primarily a 17.1-cent jump in the rate for the city of Madison, fixed at $1.331, compared with a 1968 tax rate of $1.16. The rate for Madison school district 12 increased by 7.6 cents from $2.52 last year to $2.598 this year. The township and road and bridge fund rates applied in Madison are the same as those applied in Venice since they are applicable to the entire township.

The overall combined rate for taxpayers living in the city of Madison is presently set at $4.86, compared with $4.69 last year. Here again the same levee district rate extended last year is used in that total which will be subject to change.

Namekiki township tax rates this year show an overall increase of 18.4 cents over the previous year. The new Namekiki township rate is fixed at 39.3 cents, up 3.8 cents over the 35.5 cents of a year ago. This is added to the 20.1-cent rise of school district 9 for a total increase of 22.9 cents. The 4.7-cent cut in the county rate, however, and a reduction of .8 of one cent in the new road and bridge fund rate, fixed at 28.3 cents, cuts the increase to the 18.4-cent figure.

The combined rate for the five principal taxing agencies of Namekiki township is $4.68 this year, compared with $4.484 a year ago. This rate also includes last year's rate for the levee district, and does not include street lighting districts, fire districts and other units which are applicable only in variable parts of the township.

In Chouteau township, the rate for the township increased to 14.4 cents, a rise of 3.5 cents over last year's rate of 10.9 cents. The new rate for the road and bridge fund declined, however, to a new rate of 35.6 cents from last year's 36.5 cents, a drop of 1.2 cents. Other taxing districts whose rates apply in parts of the township are the county, School District 9 and the levee district. Taxpayers who live in all five of these major districts will pay a combined rate of $4.576, as presently established and subject to change in the levee district rate. Last year the combined rate in Chouteau township was $4.396.

Thus, this year's combined rate is an increase of 17.7 cents over that of last year, principally because of the rise in the rate of School District 9.

Methods Used in Governing GCHS Pupils Assailed

Allegations about Granite City high school policies were voiced at last night's school board meeting by Dr. Melvin J. Freedman, a local physician and surgeon.

Board members said they would take the charges of "intimidation" under study and consult with employees referred to in the statement read by Dr. Freedman.

The speaker asserted that "in our senior high school, the system is failing our young people badly. True, the classes are there; the subject matter is there; good teachers are there. But the relationship between the administration and students is one of potential cataclysm."

"Apparently much of the present situation began in controversy over the 'dress code.' I have been in contact with many students over the past year and have discussed with them the method by which resolution of this problem is being conducted."

He told the board that some students and parents have been warned that unfavorable college recommendations will be given at GCHS for non-conformists.

"Most of the students involved with these differences are not delinquents, hoodlums, dropouts or addicts. In fact, the vast majority are in the upper echelon of scholastic achievement, rank high in their classes and represent the larger percentage of those that will go on to college. They are the students who have accepted the challenge of education by learning to think, and are now being stunned and bewildered by autocratic dismissal of their ideas."

"They only want to be heard, respected for their opinions, and reasoned with in such a manner that even if they cannot have what they want, they are some rationale to the refusal," Dr. Freedman said.

He said a student who ran for election submitted to the school paper his "campaign platform and statements of his belief; there were not complimentary to the administration but neither were they vulgar, revolutionary or inappropriate to express his opinions," the doctor added.

"He was threatened with libel, slander and a poor college recommendation and his parents were visited by a teacher who alarmed them with unnecessary remarks about the boy's future if he pursued his thinking in this manner."

The speaker asked, "Do we want them to see that brute force wins out? Surely, if they resort to force we cannot say

Rail Transit Plan Given Bi-State, Gateway Council

An 82-mile rail rapid transit system that would cost about $1.3 billion would provide the metropolitan area with faster service and cheaper operational cost than an all-bus system, a joint meeting of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council and the Bi-State Development Agency was told yesterday.

Major points of a consulting engineering report on rapid transit feasibility in the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area were outlined at the meeting by Peter Vandersloot, project manager for the firms of Brunnerhoff-Tudor-Bechtel and Sverdrup & Parcel, but he made no recommendation as to whether an all-bus or a combined rail-bus system should be chosen.

Lesser Operating Cost
Vandersloot said that the $1.3-billion rail system could be built over a 10-year period and would cost approximately $4.1 million per year to operate, compared with an operational cost of about $4.73 million for an all-bus system.

A transit study report in 1959 recommended an all-bus rapid transit system at an estimated cost of $340 million, but that proposal never was implemented by area leaders.

Bi-State Chairman Robert S. Knapp suggested that the all-bus proposal be dropped and that consulting engineers be instructed to develop a plan for rail cars that would be supplemented by feeder bus lines.

The rail system described by Vandersloot would operate on their own tracks, possibly those now used by railroads, and would cover five Missouri routes and two Illinois routes. The cars would leave a central terminal in East St. Louis, crossing the river on Eads bridge.

The Illinois routes, Vandersloot said, would connect East St. Louis with the Edgemoor area and with Granite City. Rail cars would average 33 miles per hour compared with 21 miles per hour for buses. The rail system would make 587,000 trips per year compared with 498,000 trips by buses.

Action was deferred until next month.

Speeding Ticket Issued
Jan. D. Krug, 185 S. Poplar street, was issued a speeding ticket at 8:40 p.m. Wednesday at 2900 Madison avenue.

Granite City junior high track and field records follow. Records are of athletes up through the ninth grade, except for Central, which has only the seventh and eighth graders. Grigsby has had an inter-scholastic track team for only one season; thus all Grigsby records are held by 1969 competitors. For all schools, ties to record marks in subsequent years are not listed.

As asterisk (*) indicates the athlete is eligible to compete this season at the same junior high school team for only high.

Mostly-Sophomore Trojan Tennis Team To Open March 31

Roger Benway, Madison high school tennis coach, will field a team composed mainly of sophomores for the season opener at "Plane" in recent weeks, arrived in England this week and engaged in a game Monday night at Exeter.

The warm-up contest for the Dublin International Soccer Tournament went to St. Luke's University 3-0. SIU-SW began aggressively but St. Luke's soon mastered the heavy turf and presented a stout defense.

After scoring in the 25th, 68th and 71st minutes, the English team played conservatively in the closing minutes to contain the Cougars. SIU-SW had too near-misses in its scoring attempts late in the game.

Cougar Bob Guelker's squad will take part in the tourney in Ireland Saturday, March 28, through Saturday, April 4, playing at least three games and up to six.

Hurdler Allen, 2-Mile Relay Unit Spark GC, 2nd in Meet at Normal

Warrior trackmen ended their indoor season at the Normal Invitational meet Wednesday with outstanding wins by Mike Allen in the low hurdles and by the two-mile relay squad of Bill Schooley, Rick Rose, Ken Elliff and Jim Duffy.

Doug Horton, trimming his best mile time to date by seven seconds, placed fourth in 4:53. Allen was nosed out of an apparent high hurdles win and was judged as second.

Granite City head coach Don Miller has been pleased with the team's indoor performances this season. In these multiple-school meets, the Warriors never placed lower than fifth.

At Normal, they earned an unofficial second place.

Next, the track and field men will be at the GCHS stadium hosting Belleville East Tuesday at 4 p.m. The originally scheduled meeting with East St. Louis here Tuesday has been postponed to April 7 for a triangular here, including Cahokia.

Belleville East has strong relay squads and good distance runners and is favored in the weight events.

At Normal, the two-mile relay squad's victory set a new GCHS indoor record and was one second off the meet record with an 8:19.8 clocking. After quick relay legs by Schooley, Rose and Elliff, McDuffy anchored the efforts with a 2:02.5 half-mile.

Other Warriors at Normal did not place.

SIU-SW notched a run in the seventh and three more in the eighth. Cougar second baseman Dennis Schutzenhofer had two hits.

Journey to Alabama At Spring Hill College, Ala.,

Wednesday, SIU-SW rolled up five runs in the first frame and lived the 8-3 win with three runs in the seventh.

Weather Hampering MHS in Preparing For Baseball Opener

The weather and Trojan baseball Coach Larry Burns' work-out schedule have been in disagreement and next Monday's season opener here with East St. Louis seems to be arriving too soon.

The amount of practice the team has had in two days outdoors can be listed in less than a sentence -- one pepper session, running, two rounds of hitting and one round of infield practice. Otherwise, conditioning has gone on indoors.

The team is meeting at 1:30 p.m. daily this week.

Signs are that the season may be one of rebuilding with openings for underclassmen in the lineup.

Only four lettermen are returning. Seniors back are shortstop Bob Scott, catcher or third baseman Mark Wells and hur-rier Jake Harmon. Junior Courtney Prothro has been an outfielder but may see some pitching duty.

Second last year was a consistent hitter, Prothro did some helpful pinch-hitting.

Gary Simpson 2nd Only to Maravich

Gary Simpson, former Granite City high basketball star, has finished the cage season on the Louisiana State University (LSU) freshman team, averaging more than 35 points per game.

He set an LSU freshman scoring record second only to Pete Maravich, who just topped Oscar Robertson's all-time four-year college scoring total.

Nonpublic Schools Commission to Meet on April 3

The eighth and last in a series of statewide public hearings will be held in Carbondale on April 3, on the Southern Illinois University campus. Holding the hearing, scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m. in Ballroom B of the University Center, will be the Elementary and Secondary Nonpublic Schools Study Commission. The 14-man commission was created by the Illinois legislature last August to study the question of state aid to private and parochial schools.

The public hearings provide opportunity for representatives of school districts, church, civic and other organizations, as well as individuals, to testify before the commission as to their position on this question.

The commission has requested that groups or individuals wishing to testify at the April 3 hearing send letters of such intent to the Commission's Administrative Office, 173 West Madison street, Chicago, Ill. 60602 prior to that date.

Driver Killed

and Mrs. Effie Gardner, both of Missouri.

An obituary notice appears elsewhere in this issue.

Truck Hits Train

William Forrest, 43, of 3528 Johnson road, was injured when a truck he was driving struck the second engine of an Illinois Terminal Railroad train at a crossing at Routes 111 and 35 at 2:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Sheriff's deputies reported that the crossing signal was not working and that Forrest was unable to stop in time after seeing the train.

Forrest was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with a forehead abrasion and neck pains. X-rays were taken.

Two persons, including a Granite Cityan, were injured about 3 a.m. Wednesday when a truck overturned on an exit ramp at the interchange for Interstate Route 70 and Route 203 near East St. Louis.

Injured were the driver, Fred Vanderventer, 30, of Malvern, Ark., and a passenger, Joyce Cochran, 26, of 2010 State street. They were taken to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

State police said the trucker swerved off the pavement to avoid merging traffic and his truck overturned on the soft shoulder.

Two Hurt in Madison

Two persons were injured and three cars were damaged as the result of a collision in the 1200 block of Madison avenue about 1:10 a.m. Tuesday, Madison police reported. Treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital were Paul Lunsford, 49, of 1229 Madison avenue, driver of one of the cars who suffered face lacerations and a hand injury, and Marilyn Champion, 34, of 2445 Pontoon road, a passenger in Lunsford's car who suffered back pains and was given spinal x-rays.

Police said Lunsford's car was struck from the rear by a car driven by James L. Beam, 1908 Rhodes street, Madison, as Lunsford stopped to make a right turn into a driveway. According to officers, debris from the colliding vehicles struck and broke out the windshield of the Lunsford car.

A parked car owned by Charles R. Marcus, 4106 Stearns avenue, Richard Hanks, 30, of 2021 Washington avenue, suffered a cut to his face about 1:35 a.m. Wednesday when a tire blew out on his auto, causing it to crash into a concrete light standard on Edwardsville road at Alexander street.

Hanks, who was alone in the car, was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Three-Car Pile-Up

Two persons were injured Tuesday afternoon in a three-car pile-up in the 1200 block of West Pontoon road.

Injured were James Thornberry, 48, of 2328 Clark avenue, and Al Hoelter, 47, of 2012 Wayne avenue, who were passengers in the middle car operated by Frederick Stegelmeyer, 47, of 2872 Ralph street.

Police said the auto of David Cremons, 33, of No. 23 Meadowlark lane was stopped for traffic and Stegelmeyer was preparing to stop when the Stegelmeyer auto was hit by the auto of Carroll Bradley, 27, of 3218 Wildshire drive, who said

Lawn & Garden

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
Area Extension Adviser,
Ornamental Horticulture
St. Clair and Madison Counties
Build a Terrarium

A glass jug or fish bowl can create ideal conditions for a collection of small plants.

Any clear glass container with a glass cover can be used to build a miniature garden with dwarf house plants. While the enclosed container maintains high humidity the clear glass allows adequate light to promote growth. Terrariums rarely need water but require bright locations. When extraordinary growth creates a jungle you can replant your terrarium and create a new scene with a new combination.

Naturally dwarf plants like african violets, wood violets, miniature peperomias, dwarf sansevieria and various species of ivy will grow for months before they create a jungle. A terrarium of wild plants from a nearby wood and native moss can create a beautiful scene and prolong spring for several months.

To construct a terrarium cover the bottom of the container with moss with the green side showing. Add a layer of sand on the moss to provide additional drainage before adding the soil. Use a soil mix 1/2 sand, peat moss and soil. Not much soil is needed, just enough to hold the plants in position. Arrange the plants toward the back. Try to create a woodland or tropical scene. Allow extra space for each plant to enlarge. Cover the open spaces with pebbles, moss or small creeping vines.

An interesting stone, small piece of driftwood or small figurine can provide additional interest. Be careful to avoid cluttering your garden with the center of beauty.

New Try to Build Sheriff's Office Fails by One Vote

A new attempt at construction of a two-story office building for the Madison county sheriff's department failed by one vote at a meeting of the Madison county board of supervisors Wednesday morning.

The new buildings committee had asked to call for bids for construction of the building at the county jail site in Edwardsville, and after extensive arguments which included the suitability of the current jail structure, Alton May of Alton moved to table the measure.

The tabling motion was approved by a vote of 23 to 22. An original count showed a wider margin, but several board members claimed they misunderstood the motion and changed their votes.

According to plans and specifications by Architect Edward Kane, the new building would provide for sheriff's offices, a dispatching office, a kitchen, a lineup room and a recreation room for prisoners.

Previously Dropped
The county two years ago appropriated $85,000 for the project but bids totaled about $100,000 and the project was dropped.

May maintained that the board had never decided that it wanted a sheriff's building or found a location, and that a call for bids was out of order. Edward Vourmeur, a legislator, claimed that bids were needed to determine the feasibility of the project.

Several board members and Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney, pointed out that the state is going to force the county to build a new county jail in the near future as the current jail is inadequate in size and is structurally unsound.

Vourmeur, who is against an overall county building program which would cost taxpayers $6 to $8 million, claimed the current building is sufficient, and "if we provide a building that doesn't leak and sufficient room, we can function. Let's provide for today."

$120,000 Cost Estimate
Roy Halbe of Hamel, committee chairman, estimated that the building would cost $120,000 to $160,000. Vourmeur felt the county could take care of its current space needs for less than $1 million, including all county offices which are crowded.

Smith said the State Department of Corrections will take a look at the old jail in a few weeks, but adding it would take five years to get a new jail and the sheriff needs the office facilities now.

Walter Sparks, Chouteau township supervisor, said, "The jail committee feels the jail is substantial and good enough and do the job, though it may not be big enough."

"But when a guy is in jail you shouldn't think about his recreation. He's a criminal. If (the courts) would set a big enough fine or a stiff sentence in Chester, they might think twice about committing a crime and going to the county jail." Then it would be big enough, he concluded.

Halbe informed the board that

Indian Headdresses Aid Pair in Fund Drive Here

Many backward glances, along with about 35 used bicycles and several cash contributions were collected this week by two area men who visited Quad-City business places and individuals on behalf of the American Indian Developing Organization, a group of volunteers working to help poverty-stricken Indians on reservations in South Dakota.

The men attracted and held the attention of passersby and others they encountered by virtue of their exotic Indian headdresses.

Cletus Wilson of Caseyville, an employee of American Steel Foundries and president of AIDO, received the war bonnet, fashioned of real eagle feathers and tipped in brilliant hues, from chiefs of the Sioux Nation, most of whom reside on the Pine Ridge and Rosebud reservations in South Dakota.

His companion solicitor here was Dale McDowell, a Twp. public accountant and vice-president of the volunteer organization.

Nameoki Township Board Drafts Drainage Program

A three-point program to combat a mounting flood threat and health hazard in the Long Lake area has been initiated by Nameoki township officials in a series of recent developments announced Monday night at a regular meeting of the town board.

Action taken by township authorities includes:

1. Louis Whitsell, town clerk, announced he had written the East Side Levee and Sanitary district requesting immediate steps be taken to facilitate drainage of Long Lake into Elm Slough to lower an alarmingly high level of the lake.

2. Two agents of the Illinois State Department of Public Health have made an investigation of pollution sources around the lake shore, procuring water samples and are to make an inspection soon.

3. Supervisor Harry Briggs said he is planning a trip to Chicago to discuss with federal authorities the possibility of federal grants for financing the township's share for construction of a ditch from Maryville road along the Alton & Southern tracks to Horseshoe Lake that would drain a considerable portion of township land.

Improper Lake Drainage
Whitsell told the town board that he had written the levee district concerning the high level of Long Lake because there appears to be insufficient drainage of the lake into Elm Slough through which Long Lake drainage eventually runs into Horseshoe Lake.

"Long Lake is two to three feet higher than it used to be," Whitsell said, noting that "the lake level is much higher than the level of Elm Slough, so it is obvious the lake isn't draining properly. I think this is a levee responsibility."

Briggs said that he agreed and that "if we had rains now like we had last summer, we would really be in trouble."

The supervisor said that he recently accompanied two public health department agents on a tour of the Long Lake shoreline investigating pollution sources. He said the agents took samples of the water from various points and said they would return soon.

Sewage Pollutes Lake
Cesspools and septic tanks of houses and cottages around Long Lake have drained into the lake for many years, but recently some mobile home courts have directed sewage into the lake and pollution is becoming a critical problem, it was pointed out. Frank Mellic, a Democratic precinct committeeman, said he had received complaints about pollution and that when he checked the area of the complaint he found that "it stunk so you could hardly breathe."

Briggs said his plans to meet with federal officials in Chicago grew out of a recent meeting between Nameoki town board members and Granite City Mayor Donald Parney concerning a $15,000 payment necessary to get the state highway department to enlarge a proposed stormwater drainage installation planned in connection with the widening and resurfacing of Route 303 from the north Granite City limits to Mitchell.

The state plans to install a 42-inch stormwater drainage line for the highway project, but Parney has suggested it be enlarged to a 60-inch line that would connect with the Nameoki area ditch and provide drainage for a wide area. Briggs said Nameoki township "would benefit three times more than Granite City" from the larger line. The state has asked Granite City to pay the additional $15,000 the larger line would cost.

To Seek U.S. Aid
Briggs said Mayor Parney also had proposed that officials of Nameoki township, Granite City and the East Side Levee & Sanitary District go together to seek federal funds for construction of a drainage ditch that would help drain the Doherty Slough area and other lowlands in the Nameoki township area that are flooded even by moderate rains.

William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, Missouri county member of the levee district board of trustees, said yesterday that he had received Whitsell's letter concerning the high level of Long Lake and that the district is working on the problem now.

Elm Slough is to be checked for drainage blockades, but Ebersoldt noted, Elm Slough at best is a poor drainage outlet for Long Lake.

The young Army serviceman arrived home about two weeks ago from the hospital and is receiving therapy treatments daily at home and will begin sitting up therapy soon. With the home program, Holland will not have to return to the hospital for treatment and will be allowed to stay at his home.

He was accidentally wounded in the neck last July 19, in Vietnam, resulting in complete paralysis from the neck down. With great determination and complete faith, he has made great strides in overcoming the paralysis.

He can now raise his right arm above his head and has regained feeling in his legs and feet and is able to move his legs.

Although the regular routine of therapy to repair and strengthen damaged nerves and muscles is quite exhausting, the young man, manages to get up and sit in a wheelchair for several hours each day.

Trucker Injured, Cars Damaged in Venice Incidents

A truck driver approaching the Phelps-Dodge plant in Venice Tuesday afternoon was struck on the head and injured in a rock-throwing incident that also resulted in damage to at least three other trucks and several autos, according to reports by police and company representatives.

Claude Roberson, 54, of 612 East Chain of Rocks road, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital. He suffered a cut to the back of his head when he was struck by a piece of brick hurled at his truck on Weaver street about a block from the Phelps-Dodge plant, Venice police reported.

Police said they booked a 14-year-old Venice boy under the juvenile code as a result of the incident. The boy was identified in police reports as the youth who threw the brick that struck Roberson. The boy was booked tentatively as a delinquent.

Five Autos Damaged
Roberson's injury climaxed a series of rock-throwing incidents that developed shortly after noon Tuesday, and which followed the damaging of about five autos near the entrance to the Fox Bros. Industrial Park late Monday night.

Charles Pelant, St. Louis, reported to Venice police at 12:05 p.m. Tuesday that his car was struck by two bricks as he was leaving the Phelps-Dodge plant and was southbound on Weaver street. Pelant's car was damaged on the rear and front doors and on the top, police reported.

Although no reports of the damage were made to police, at least three other trucks approaching the Phelps-Dodge plant were damaged by bricks and rocks during the Tuesday afternoon incident, and several passenger autos driven by Phelps-Dodge workers were said to have been damaged.

Madison police were called to a point near Line Alley just west of the Fox Bros. Park entrance about 11:30 Monday night when five autos were reported damaged by bricks and rocks thrown from the roadsides in that area.

Spiked Boards Found
At that time Madison officers reported they found a board driven and the board placed in the roadway with the nails upright for the apparent purpose of puncturing auto tires. Officers said they also found a piece of masonry through which nails also had been driven and placed in the roadway.

Officers said a barricade had been placed across part of the street to direct traffic over the nail-studded boards, police said.

Election Cost $35,337, Checks being Prepared

Miss Eulalia Hotz, Madison county clerk, announced that election checks for workers in last week's primary election currently are being made as soon as possible. They will be forwarded to township supervisors.

Total cost of the election was $35,337, she said, and includes the pay of judges, mileage, polling places, handling of booths and other expenses. The amount averages to more than $1 per vote as an estimated 30,000 persons went to the polls.

She reported little change in the outcome of the vote as the result of the canvass except that the plurality of votes obtained in the Republican primary by Robert J. Walters for state representative was narrowed to 45 over Charles Thoma. The unofficial tally was 5098 to 4682.

2 Zoning, Use Permits Approved, 1 Denied

The Madison county board of supervisors approved two petitions and denied another for special use permits and zoning changes on recommendation of the county zoning board of appeals Wednesday morning.

The supervisors also appointed Harold Peters of St. Jacob township to the appeals board to replace Clyde Donahoe of Wood River for a term to expire in April, 1974.

The board approved the petitions of Illinois Power Co., owner of Parcels I and II, and Theodore Kaseberg, owner of parcels III and IV, and IPC purchasers of the third and fourth parcels, to rezone the tract from agricultural to M-3 heavy industrial district in Nameoki township.

Elwood Glasper to place a mobile home in an R-4 single family residence district in Nameoki township for use by him and his family only.

Denied was the petition of Charles J. Schwarz to place a mobile home in an M-2 general manufacturing district in Chouteau township.

Schermer Tells Club Of Visit to Bahamas

Leo Schermer, superintendent of a Madison supermarket and a member and past president of the Madison Rotary club, addressed the club at its weekly luncheon meeting yesterday on experiences during his recent trip to the Bahamas.

Schermer and James Swift discussed the Summer Ranger program of the Cahokia Mound Boy Scout Council. President-elect Charles Hasse conducted the meeting, held at the Madison memorial recreation center.

Attention was called to the current sale of tickets for the Rotarians' benefit chili and spaghetti supper, from 4 to 8 p.m. Saturday, April 25, at the memorial center.

Hasse reviewed the 1970 district Rotary conference which he and President Richard Suss attended last week in Galesburg. It was announced that the 1971 conference will be held in Edwardsville on a Saturday and Sunday in April.

New Attorney Named Over Landfill Suit

Nicholas Byron of Edwardsville, an assistant state's attorney, has been appointed to represent Madison county officials in a mandamus suit brought against them by the Chouteau Island Corp.

The suit involves a dispute as to the right of the firm to reopen a landfill on Chouteau Island.

The county had been represented by Marshall Smith, chief assistant state's attorney in charge of civil matters, but he was removed by the county board's sanitation committee headed by Carl Buehler on the claim that Smith favored the landfill side of the issue.

A hearing on the suit, demanding that officials issue a permit for the landfill, is set for 9:30 a.m. April 13 in circuit court at Edwardsville.

Manufacturing Employees Here Now Total 12,000

The national economic downturn in hard goods manufacturing, coupled with seasonal lags in construction, were the main reasons that surveyed employment in the Quad-City area dipped over 4% during the July 15-Jan. 15 period, a newly-completed study showed this week.

Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service office at 2050 Iowa street, said most of the downturn occurred in the latter part of the six-month span and was centered in durable goods.

There also were significant reductions in non-durables and in non-factory employment.

Sees Stable Outlook
Unemployment is up over the year-ago level but should remain stable for the next several months, Thompson forecasts.

"Modest hirings are anticipated in printing and publishing, petroleum refining, construction and wholesale trade," he said.

"These advances will be neutralized by further reductions in primary metals, food and kindred products, retail trade, finance-insurance-real estate and government establishments."

The 60 reporting firms had 16,626 employees in January 1969, 17,377 in July 1969 and 16,626 in January 1970.

Breakdowns, in the same order: 11 durable goods manufacturers, 10,582; 11,120 and 10,646; 12 non-durable goods manufacturers, 1366, 1437 and 1377; 37 non-manufacturing firms, 4678, 4810 and 4588.

The grand totals included 2282 women workers a year ago, 2329 six months ago and 2278 now. The 2278 consist of 441 in durable goods work, 216 in non-durable goods and 1619 in non-manufacturing.

Highway Fund Freeze

Commenting on the manufacturing picture, Thompson told the Press-Record, "A sharp job decline in primary metals, coupled with a wintertime slowdown in highway construction and the bi-county freeze of federal funds, were the main reasons factory employment decreased."

"The decline in primary metals was largely due to auto production cutbacks. Layoffs also were noted in fabricated metals and petroleum refining and related products, partly offset by hiring gains in transportation equipment, paper and allied products and rubber products."

Reviewing non-manufacturing, he cited a federal cutback in temporary workers and seasonal layoffs in construction and communication and public utilities. There were gains in transportation service and finance-insurance-real estate, the latter resulting from a regional insurance office's move into this area.

Year's Trends Mixed

"Mixed trends occurred during the past year, with increased manufacturing hiring, offset by reductions in non-manufacturing. Gains were supplemented by food and paper products."

"Non-factory manpower rosters sagged with government and contractor layoffs, but large to be offset by advance in finance and professional services."

The ISES regularly seeks to place applicants in jobs. Its active file is up 13% in the last six months, including individuals with processing, machine trades, bench work and structural occupational skills.

Kenneth Millikin, 39, Dies; Ill 13 Years

at a day at Coolidge and one hour at Prather junior high school. "Enrollment factors may require adjustments in staffing at two elementary schools," Supt. Bob J. Davis said. "A recommendation will be given later if it then is advisable to create new positions."

"Due to unknown factors related to possible program adjustments, recommendations for additional high school positions in physical education, health education and vocational shop will be held in abeyance until further study can be made."

The board approved a request by Richard Barnett, Lake school principal, to transfer to classroom duties beginning next fall. Seventy-eight teachers were placed on tenure and a decision on extending employment of 65-year-old teachers was set for April 8.

Mired Truck Causes Nameoki Rd. Blockage

Nameoki road was blocked off for about 45 minutes Tuesday night, while large tow trucks used the median strip as a block to pull a mired tractor-trailer truck from a deep mud on the lot on the southwest corner at Pontoon road.

Cables were stretched across the southbound lanes about 7:45 p.m. while the tow trucks were in the northbound lanes. The truck, which had been pulled over by a state trooper Monday night was loaded with a 110,000-pound press and saw being delivered from Chicago to the Phelps Dodge Aluminum Co. plant in Madison.

The driver had overload and oversize permits but they were not approved for night-time travel, it was reported.

When the truck was pulled on to the lot, it was not known by the driver and trooper that a building there recently had been razed and a basement filled. Efforts to pull the truck out of the lot were futile because tow trucks could not be anchored.

After the heavy truck was freed from the mud, it was towed to a highway garage with a broken drive shaft. Phelps Dodge officials did not learn of its whereabouts until Wednesday morning.

Collide in Madison
Damage to the front end of an auto driven by Doris D. Gafford, 2224 Dewey avenue, and to the rear of a car driven by John N. Madison police said the accident occurred when Ingraham stopped for traffic and was struck from the rear by the Gafford car. Both cars were northbound.

March 30 at 1:30 p.m. at the Nelson home. From there, the troop will go to the Press-Record for a conducted tour.

Easton and Brownie songs were sung, and Tammy Rigney led the girls in a closing song. Other members present were Judy Theis, Elizabeth Symonek, Carmella Johanneper, Lisa Flanagan, Susan Padgett and Julia Campbell.

BROWNIE EASTER PARTY
Brownie Troop 1138, sponsored by St. Joseph's Altar Society, met Monday at the home of the leader, Mrs. Irene Nelson, 2423 Edison avenue. Assisting her mother was Carolyn Nelson.

Janet Nelson opened the meeting with the Brownie promise and Kathy Gary led members in reciting the pledge of allegiance while Michelle Ann Boyer held the flag.

Interest Deductions Need to be Rechecked

Taxpayers planning to claim an interest deduction on their 1969 Federal tax return should be sure to read the instructions carefully to avoid errors. Jay G. Philpott, District Director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, advised.

Interest deductions should be entered with other itemized deductions on Schedule A, a separate form this year, and attached to Form 1040. The separate form for itemized deductions gives taxpayers more space than previously provided to list interest, taxes, contributions and other deductible expenses.

Interest paid on a home mortgage, a bank loan or other debt may be deducted if the taxpayer is legally responsible for the payment.

Interest paid for another person is not deductible. Mr. Philpott said. This could occur when a parent makes a mortgage payment for his children on a home that is not in his name.

Home Notes

By Mrs. Catherine R. Mauck
Madison County Home Adviser,
Home Economics Extension
University of Illinois

Breakfast Is Important
Breakfast means more than a cup of coffee.

Everybody needs to eat an adequate breakfast. Studies show that skipping breakfast may impair your health, upset your disposition and lower your vitality.

Scientists say most people need from one-fourth to one-third of their total nutrition requirements in the morning.

This is true for young and old alike. It's easy to plan a nutritious breakfast by following the daily food guide.

Serve a food from the fruit or vegetable group, one from the meat or milk group and one from the bread and cereal group. A quick fix, quick-to-eat breakfast might be fruit juice, cereal and milk, or juice, a sandwich and milk.

Or you may want to differ with conventional breakfast foods. Try a variety of foods your children don't like them. Give them hamburgers or pie or soup.

The important thing is - eat breakfast.

Need for Protein
The food you eat becomes part of you, and the part that shows is mostly protein. Your skin, hair, tissues, all the cells of your body contain protein.

The most usable and valuable protein comes from animal foods - meat, poultry, fish, eggs, milk and milk products. Still other protein comes from gelatin, beans and cereal foods. You need generous amounts of protein each day, especially during the fast-growing teen years.

Cottage cheese rates as one of the most economical, fine-quality protein foods you can buy. And it contains relatively few calories - it cups has about 90 calories.

Clean Sewing Machine Often
Before you get your spring sewing campaign under way, take time to clean your machine.

Dust, grit and lint tend to collect on the working parts of the machine even when it is not in use. Unless they are removed, they will form a gummy mass that will interfere with the smooth running of the machine and may cause it to jam and break.

Follow the manufacturer's cleaning instructions. They were designed for your particular machine and have been laboratory-tested. If you have lost or misplaced the instruction book, write the manufacturer for another copy.

Training Programs For Hard Core Cases are Urged

Adapting programs to train hard core poverty level individuals who are the fourth generation public aid recipients was discussed yesterday by Miss Darlene Davlan, an instructor in the nurses aide program at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, who spoke at the quarterly meeting of the Quad Cities Social Concerns Council.

Without visual evidence of anyone in their own family who has earned money through regular employment, the hard core trainees have little incentive to try themselves, Miss Davlan said.

Most trainees with this background have no understanding of income tax and why it should be paid, are confused about social security and have little need to be on time to class or work, she pointed out. Training programs must be adapted to include these incentive areas to become effective, she said.

The former foreign service nurse said these concerns expressed some reservations about the effectiveness of poverty level training. She said staff members at Venice-Lincoln vocational training school are trying to overcome these concerns, whenever possible, by incorporating related subjects into regular courses.

Elaborating on survey of Miss Davlan's points were members of a reaction panel, consisting of Mrs. Ruby Williams, Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission supervisor at the Madison Neighborhood Center, Rev. James Roberts of the Ministerial Alliance, Thomas Griffin, United Steelworkers representative, Paul Kelly, manufacturing superintendent, A. O. Smith Corp., and Robert McCormick, AFL-CIO Community Services representative and a council treasurer.

Griffin brought out problems concerning "double standards" resulting from hard core employment practices devised by government and industry. He said many regulations which apply to a regular workman are stretched or overlooked in an attempt to keep the hard core employee on the job.

Following a New York Times reference to the concert as "A jewel of a program, with many facets, each self-contained, each gleaming with beauty."

Kathleen McCalla of Granite City will give her senior piano recital at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern next Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Loveloy Library auditorium.

The public is invited, admission free.

Miss McCalla will play Five Preludes by Robert Starer and Poema Secundo by Alessandro Ugo Torri during the first half of her program.

Following intermission she will play Incoerri and Divertimento Prestorico by Carlo Semini and Poema for Piano by Vincent Persichetti.

The recital is presented in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the bachelor of music degree which Miss McCalla will receive this spring.

Similar views were expressed by Mrs. Williams who asked what role the church can play in the overall problem of upgrading the poverty level people to believe in himself.

Marvin Van Metre, council president, conducted a short business session, attended by 25 representatives of various local agencies. Members set the annual election meeting for June 3.

ONLY 280 DAYS LEFT. A green Christmas tree, decorated with colorful Easter eggs, amuses tiny patients, Scotty Rodgers and Judy Conner, in the pediatric department at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where the unusual Easter display was set up this week. A giant Peter Rabbit, mounted on a hospital scooter and sporting a nurse's cap, completes the exhibit.

The Garden Corner

A Baker's Dozen of Garden Don'ts

1. Don't try to grow vegetables on a lot that is too poor to make a good growth of weeds or grass.

2. Don't spade, plow or cultivate soil that is too wet.

3. Don't apply too much lime. 4. Don't run the rows up and down a slope.

5. Don't plant seeds, roots, or herbs too deeply. 6. Don't sow seeds too thickly.

7. Don't guess at the amounts of fertilizer to apply per unit area of land. 8. Don't let fertilizer or manure come in contact with the seeds or plants.

9. Don't cultivate deeply enough to injure the shallow roots of the vegetables. 10. Don't let the weeds get big before you try to destroy them.

11. Don't apply water in numerous light sprinklings, but water thoroughly about once a week if rainfall is deficient.

12. Don't forget to obtain the necessary dusting or spraying equipment and materials early in the spring-before you need them.

13. Don't let the vegetables become too old before harvesting them, thereby losing high quality.

Kind of Nursery Stock
When apples and pears are to be planted in a home orchard the use of dwarf trees overcomes the objections to the large size attained by standard trees. Most retail nurseries use Mailing IX as the rootstock for a dwarfed apple tree. A few nurseries use "Clark" and Mailing VII. A choice of stocks is seldom given the retail buyer, and the stock is not identified.

Quince stocks are used for dwarfing pears. Few nurseries have more than one type of dwarfing stocks for pears.

Stone fruit trees are generally on seedling roots. Dwarfing stocks are being sold but have not proven to be completely satisfactory.

A reputable nursery will sell only trees on stocks that are the best suited to average care. Trees with several different varieties of one kind on one trunk are available. Such trees may be of value where there is space for only one tree of a kind. Pollination requirements are met and the owner can have fresh fruit from early to late-season on one tree. The performance of this type of tree is usually only fair. Most trees of this type require three or more years in the nursery for the grafting or budding of the scions. This means that a good portion of the root system is left in the ground when the tree is dug.

Multiple-varieties, 5-in-1, or even 25-in-1 trees can easily be made by the gardener by grafting or budding as many varieties as he wishes onto a stock. Do not mix species. For information on budding or grafting your own trees, contact your local Agriculture Extension Adviser.

Page Seeks Widespread Environmental Teach-In

Ray Page, Illinois superintendent of public instruction, is encouraging Illinois schools to participate in the national environmental teach-in scheduled nationwide April 22.

The environmental teach-in is designed to stir up national interest in improving the quality of life by acquainting all people with the need and methods of maintaining an environment for the perpetuation of life in this country and on the earth.

Sen. Gaylord D. Nelson of Wisconsin proposed the teach-in and Congressman Paul McCloskey suggested April 22 as the date for the special observance.

The teach-in is expected to spread to more than 2500 colleges and high schools during April.

In his suggestions urging Illinois schools to take part in the program Page said, "Public and private schools at all levels, colleges and universities, business and industry, and many other groups have voiced approval of the idea, with emphasis upon community planning. Our use or misuse of natural resources affect our health, economy, society and national security to such a degree that national, state and local attention has been focused upon the many attendant problems."

He suggested class discussions, film showings, panel discussions or school assemblies on water pollution, air pollution, beautification, urban land use, forestry, nature centers, school grounds and parks, wildlife, and related topics in colleges, high schools and elementary schools. Parades, posters, badges and, possibly, tours are also suggested.

He suggested that the environment be also suggested attention-getters.

Instructor for the course is Thornton W. Opperman. The class will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays in Peck building classroom 2409. The course will run for 14 weeks. Total cost is $42.

WAC Opens Program For College Juniors

Travel, excitement and a good salary are the things many young women look for in a job upon graduation from college.

All of these can come true for those who can qualify for the U. S. Women's Army Corps college junior orientation program. The four-week orientation at the Army Corps center at Fort McClellan, Ala., offers college juniors an opportunity to find out whether they would like to qualify as officers in the WAC — and be paid while they are finding out, with no further obligations.

During the month-long orientation the qualified young woman serves as a cadet corporal in the WAC enlisted reserve, drawing $214 as pay for that period. All expenses, including transportation to and from Fort McClellan and an initial issue of uniforms and accessories, are provided free of charge. Young women of varied interests from all sections of the country attend.

If after the month's orientation the cadet does not like Army life, she is under no further obligation.

Upon completion, if a young woman wishes to become a WAC officer, she remains a cadet corporal in the reserve during her senior year in college, receiving a salary of $380 each month, as well as many military benefits. Upon graduation, she will be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Women's Army Corps, with a salary of $6233 for her first year as a second lieutenant. She is eligible to serve on active duty for a two-year period.

For further information regarding this and other Army programs, those interested may contact Sfc R. B. Mabry, 1026 Niedringhaus avenue.

Ground Breaking Ceremony Set for New Salem Baptist

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new Salem Baptist Church building, to be located at 1349 Klein street, Venice, will be conducted at the church site 2 p.m. Sunday, April 5, Rev. Seamus Boyce, pastor announced this week.

Principal speaker at the public dedicatory service will be Rev. Stanley Howlett, a native of Madison and widely-known former professional boxer. Now residing in Edwardsville with his wife and three children, Rev. Howlett presently serves as pastor of the True Light Baptist Church in St. Louis.

Rev. Howlett attended the American Baptist Theological Seminary and holds a Doctor of Divinity Degree from the Mississippi Baptist Theological Seminary in Prentiss, Miss.

Apart from his pastoral duties, he serves as homilectics instructor at the Jones School of Ministry in St. Louis and is active in various organizations throughout the Midwest.

The guest speaker at the April 5 ground-breaking was a highly-regarded amateur and professional boxer, winning seven heavyweight championship titles during his eight-year boxing career. His last professional bout was in September 1954 when he fought Sonny Liston at the St. Louis Arena. He also engaged in heavyweight matches in Tokyo, Honolulu, Boston and Chicago.

In addition to his occupation as a Baptist minister, Rev. Howlett is employed as a personnel counselor at Granite City Steel Co., where he also serves as a seminar instructor in the Steel Institute program, sponsored by local school districts and Southern Illinois University.

Started 33 Years Ago The New Salem Baptist Church has been located for 33 years at its present site, 208 Bremen street, Venice. Erection of a new church building at a different location became necessary, Rev. Boyce explained, due to construction of the Great River Road through the Kerr Island section, an area served by the church for more than a half-century.

Dispersed of Kerr Island residents into Madison, other areas of Venice forced the church's eventual relocation, the pastor said. Church membership now totals 250.

Organized in the spring of 1917 in the home of a Sister Fisher, the New Salem Baptist Church started with seven members, known as a "prayer band."

Those responsible for establishing the church were Mrs. James Green, Mrs. Mollie White, Mrs. Agnes Rhodes, Mrs. Lulu Williams, a Mrs. Weakfall and Mrs. Fisher.

REV. STANLEY HOWLETT
Speaker at Ceremony

Assisting the small band to organize were three ministers, Rev. R. D. Raspberry, Rev. J. W. Borders and Rev. DeShield. The first pastor assigned to the church was Rev. Thomas Treadway, followed by Rev. J. M. Gladney, who served from 1920 to 1923.

Other early pastors included Rev. S. D. Harris, 1923-25; Rev. Alfred Rice, 1925-27; Rev. Butler, 1928-29; Rev. J. N. Taylor, under whose leadership the church grew rapidly, 1929-34; and Rev. E. Snow, 1934-37.

Fire in 1945 Rev. W. A. Brown was called as pastor from 1937 until 1943, succeeded by Rev. C. D. Bauman, who remained until August 1962. The original church building was destroyed by fire in 1945 and was re-constructed under the leadership of Rev. Buchanan.

Rev. Boyce, a resident of St. Louis and employee in the warehouse division at the Granite City Army Depot, has served as pastor since 1962.

For the last 4 1/2 years, church members have participated in a series of fund-raising drives to secure donations for a new building, the minister said.

Semi-annual fashion shows, banquets and teas have been sponsored to boost the church building fund, to which was explained the proceeds from benefit food sales and individual pledges.

Preliminary sketches for the new structure are complete and an architect shortly will begin the final drawings, Rev. Boyce explained. He said a meeting of church trustees and officials at First Granite City National Bank was held Monday to review provisions of the building fund and determine the next step in the construction program.

Annual Easter Egg Hunt Saturday at Wilson Park

Large chocolate Easter "bunnies" and decorated chocolate eggs may be earned by pre-school through second grade youngsters who collect the most eggs in the seventh annual Easter Egg Hunt to be sponsored at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at Wilson Park, by the Granite City park district.

A total of 3600 foil-wrapped candy eggs will be "hidden" at three separate areas in the park, where children will be assigned according to a age group, Harold Brown, park superintendent said today.

All youngsters must have their own Easter basket or other containers in which to gather the eggs, the park official stressed. Participation in the hunt is limited to pre-school, kindergarten, and first and second grade children who reside within the park district.

Preschoolers and kindergarten pupils will search for eggs at the Wilson Park softball diamond at 29th and State streets. Brown said. First graders will gather eggs in Area Eight, near 28th and State streets, and second grade students adjacent to Shelter Area Two on the Benton street side of Wilson Park.

Duplicate prizes will be awarded in each age group to the boy or girl who finds the traditional "special" egg: the youngster collecting the most eggs; and the boy and girl who gathers the most eggs.

Brown said that due to the increased number of youngsters now taking part in the annual event, the same child may win only one prize.

None of the children will be disappointed, he added, as each participant will receive a candy egg whether they are successful or not in locating the hidden eggs.

Hit-Run Driver Crashes Into Concrete Block Wall

A hit-run motorist in a shiny, late model red sports car struck a concrete block wall, knocking off six or seven blocks, about 11:15 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Edw. Milton, 2201 East 20th street.

A witness told police the west-bound auto jumped the curb to crash through the two-block high wall, and the driver backed out of the yard and left the scene.

Collide in Madison

Cars driven by Sandra A. Mudrovic, 310 Bend road, and Thomas E. Ham, 52 Venice Homes, were damaged about 2:42 p.m. Monday in a collision at Eighth street and Madison avenue. The Mudrovic car was northbound on Madison avenue when it was headed east on Eighth street when the mishap occurred, officers said.

'Demonstration' Hits First Assembly of God

First Assembly of God Church, 24th street and Grand avenue, had a surprise "demonstration" at its Palm Sunday morning service, but happily it turned out to be a peaceful one.

About 40 boys and girls from the Children's church staged a march during the service, going up and down the aisles carrying signs reading:

"Do something worthwhile. Come to Sunday school."

"Be patient. Ask them to Sunday school again. They may accept."

"How are you redeeming your time?"

Rev. M. A. Groff, pastor, said he favors this type of demonstration and wishes all of them to be peaceful and said as much.

TWICE ALL-CONFERENCE. Bethalto's Dave Taynor (left) and Highland's Jim Nickerson have been named to the all-Midwestern Conference first team for the second time each.

Taynor and Nickerson Repeat; Joined by 3 Other Senior Players

The Press-Record's all-Midwestern Conference basketball team for 1969-70 consists of Bethalto's Dave Taynor, Highland's Jim Nickerson, Madison's Tom Noel and Triad's Don Sonnenberg and Keith McFarland, as selected by the league's head coaches.

All on the all-star first team are seniors. Taynor and Nickerson were on last year's all-circuit first team, and two years ago the two were on the second team. Sonnenberg was on last year's second team.

The 1969-70 second team consists of Triad's Stu Weider, Madison's Joe Dozier, Bethalto's Rick Imel, Roxana's Carl Blackwood and Duplo's Wayne Wolf.

Taynor, hitting 51% of his floor shots and 75% from the foul line, led the league's scoring with 28 points per outing.

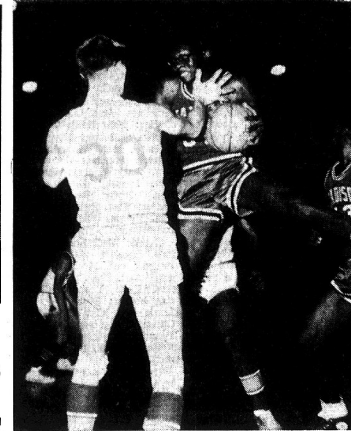

Last year, he tallied at an 18.5-point clip.

Suffering from ankle weaknesses for most of the season, Taynor, from his guard position, led the Eagles in rebounding with nine a game.

Nickerson ended his three-year career as a Bulldog with an 117-point total. In his lowest scoring season, as a sophomore, he gathered 381 points. After amassing 410 points as a junior, he had a slow start this season before ending the year with 386.

With his Highland teammates, Nickerson blossomed for top

NOEL, TOP ALL-LEAGUE REBOUNDER. Madison's Tom Noel (with the ball) gathered the most rebounds among the all-Midwestern first-team members.

Noel all season was in the right spot when the Trojans needed a clutch rebound on the off-season and returned to measure in with a 6.3 height.

Playing a forward spot and driving under the basket like an agile guard, McFarland tallied more than 20 points a game and took down more than 200 rebounds.

He hit 51% of his floor attempts and 75% from the charity stripe for 436 points at a 16.8-per-game pace.

McFarland, since playing on Triad's junior varsity as a 5-10 steady ball-handling guard last year, grew five inches during the off-season and returned to measure in with a 6.3 height.

Playing a forward spot and driving under the basket like an agile guard, McFarland tallied more than 20 points a game and took down more than 200 rebounds.

His percentages were 48% and 75%.

His accuracy was 45% from the field and 67% from the stripe.

Among the second-team members, Weider led Triad in assists with nearly 200 and scored nine points per game. Blackwood and Wolf carried 11-point averages. Imel gained much of his recognition for general floor play and assists, scoring six points per game. And Dozier captured 328 rebounds and averaged 12.5 points.

Two players on last year's second team, Greg Heavner of Bethalto and Bill Laird of Triad, now seniors, were named for honorable mention.

13 Trojans Back to Rewrite More Records

With 13 returning lettermen, Coach Charles Steptoe and his Trojans will be working to break a number of all-time MHS records when the season opens for them March 31 at Mascoutah.

Seven of the 17 records on the books were rewritten in 1969. Only two of the record-setting athletes are not back this spring: Jerry Smith of the mile relay squad and two-mile runner Alonzo Watts have graduated.

Watts is the only Trojan to have held the two-mile record; the event was admitted to regular competition in 1968.

The oldest record in danger is a 1906 half-mile relay mark of 1:33.9.

A squad of three seniors, Larry Mosby, Don Turner and George Tyus, and one sophomore, Eduardo Chandler, may replace the names of the 1935 record holders, Skinner, Louis Twiston and Purcell.

Last season as juniors and a freshman, the current relay squad was just over a second off the record pace, regularly turning in times of less than 1:26. Mosby and Tyus each have three letters and Turner has two.

Tyus, also, holds two individual records, digging his spikes for a 24.3-yard dash on the curve and a century sprint of 10 seconds that sent him to the IHSA state meet.

Chandler, as an amazing younger brother; if speed is a family trait, the record may change but remain in the family.

Holmes personally owns another record. In the 400-yard dash, he notched a :53.1 time. He is a three-letter trackman.

Three-year letterman Van Ford has the MHS 180-yard low hurdles mark of :20.6. He also leads the team in the high hurdles and the high jump. Ford may find the place on the mile relay team vacated by Smith.

Turner also competes in sprints and the long jump.

Other lettermen, their year in school and their specialties are: Junior Dwayne Shaw, low hurdles; Ron Gregory, 880 relay; sophomore Smith graduated.

The 1969 mile relay squad, which undercut the old time by 6.7 seconds with a 3:21.1 clocking, is three-fourths back. Den- nis Hampton, Techumseh Holmes and Larry Mosby are returning as seniors; Jerry Smith graduated.

To attempt a retake of the mile relay record, the replacement on the squad for Smith is most likely to be freshman Bill Rongray. Perhaps not coincidentally, Rongray is Smith's dies, 880 relay; sophomore James Youngblood, 100, 200, 400, 800, 1600, mile relay, high hurdles.

Sophomore Gerald Ponsel, 100, 200, 400, 800, mile relay, high hurdles.

From the cross-country team, juniors Ray Daley and Henry Debbins will join the track team for the first time to enter the two-mile run.

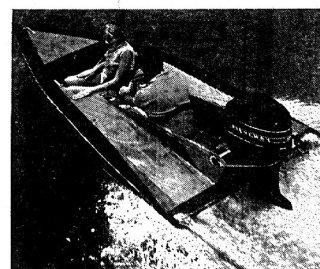

In the field events, the Trojans had few results last season. Working with the shot put and discus this season are seniors Harold James, Tony Young, Tim Bennett and William Tyler. Senior Bruce Crawford is showing more promise for high jumping competitiveness than the Trojans have had for several years.

Junior Eugene Patton may be pole vaulting in the 10-11-foot range and in the future may 1954 threaten the 1957 record of 11-3 set by Jolly.

Surprise performances may be seen from: freshmen Larry Evans, a sprinter; junior Bill Foster, half-mile or mile relay; sophomore Harvey Lee, a miler; and freshman Robert Dew Madison high all-time track and field records follow:

Lot gravity work for you instead of against you. The gravity is constantly pulling you down, down, down. Stretching the muscle tissue in the upper portion of the shoulders.

With the Penrynch Bra this is all reversed. The breast is supported by the elasticity of the Bandier that fits under the breast. So the gravity can pull you over the Bandier, lifting the midriff with it. Also by pulling and tugging at the lowest tissue under the arm, pulling it into the cup where it belongs. While at the same time the strain on the upper muscles above the breast, allowing it to become firm and tight again. Therefore relieving all shoulder strap strain completely.

You have to be fitted in a Penrynch Bra to believe it. Call today for your appointment.

Mud-Caked Sidewalk and Sewer Complaints to City

Two letters from complaining residents were read to Granite City council members Monday night—one concerning mud on sidewalk after every rain and the other seeking a refund from the city for reconnection of a sewer tap-on because of a collapsed city sewer line.

The sidewalk complaint, made by Mrs. Thomas E. Crews, 2033 Pontoon road, was referred to the Street committee; while the sewer complaint was by Roger Levin, 3248 Rodgers avenue, referred to the city engineer for recommendation.

Mrs. Crews said she had lived at the address for 15 years and the city had kept the side of Pontoon road properly graded, but now after a rain or a snow "there is a good two inches of mud on the sidewalk in front of my home and it requires a shovel to dig it off."

"What has happened to the city—they used to make care of this on a regular basis. We used to see the grader out there grading this area off so that all this mud would not settle on the sidewalk."

Large Pool of Water
"When it rains or snows there is a good sized pool of water at the corner and when cars 'by' they splatter this water to high heaven and with it goes a lot of mud and it lands on the sidewalk."

"Pontoon road is a heavily travelled road," she continued, "and it would seem that the city could maintain it to some degree so that we would not have to shovel off the sidewalk. To shovel snow is bad enough and you, of course, have no control over that, but to shovel mud is 10 times harder, and you could control the mud that accumulates on our sidewalk."

Levin enclosed a bill for $300 in his letter to the city.

"I live at 3248 Rodgers avenue, and if you will recall there was a sewer break in back of my house about six weeks ago which completely stopped my home service," Levin wrote.

"At that time Alderman Parmley was called and he advised me to contract the job out, because the break was probably at or on the home owner's service at the tap-on. I contracted the repair job to Ken-to take only four hours but in the Carver. The repair job was steady it took 2½ days before my service was restored.

Break at Tap-On
"When Mr. Carver started repairs, you were called and told the condition of the main sewer line. You in turn sent a city engineer out to look the situation over. I talked to the engineer and he told me the main line had dropped four to five inches, but the responsibility and cost to repair was still on my shoulders for the break was at the tap-on."

"Now how do you expect a four-inch home service to stay in one piece if the main drops away from it four to five inches. Six weeks ago I was the only home owner in the block out of service although many people in the block have had slow drainage for over a year, but last Monday night when three home owners were out of service, the city really stepped in and free of charge I might add."

"Now, mayor, there is an old saying which you may have heard, 'The wheel that squeaks the loudest gets the most oil.' This letter is the first squeak."

2nd Major Airport Required for County Development

(Seventh in a Series)
A second major airport in the metropolitan area is a principal requirement for projected growth and development of Madison county, according to the land use and transportation plan developed for the county by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

The possible location of the airport in the eastern part of Madison county would have a tremendous impact upon the total transportation system within the county, according to the study. It also would have direct economic ramifications.

Not only is a second major airport required within the metropolitan area, but the development of a "metropolitan airport system" also is a necessity if the air transportation system is to function properly.

The major, though only one element of the air transportation needs in the region, is the development of a second major air carrier field.

Separate Schedules
Because of the necessity of separation of scheduled air carrier and general aviation aircraft, the smaller airports within the region must also be improved and expanded to handle an ever-increasing level of general aviation aircraft operations.

Major expansion and improvement within Madison county is therefore highly probable, the report points out, and will increase the county's relative accessibility in relation to other areas within the region and to other major cities throughout the nation.

As competing modes of transportation become less attractive for passenger as well as freight transport, air transportation will become an increasingly important media, particularly in metropolitan areas. Madison county is relatively well endowed in relation to air transportation facilities within the region.

Lambert Airport
Lambert-St. Louis airport, the major air transportation facility within the metropolitan region, is one of the nation's busiest airports and is within 30 minutes driving time for the majority of county residents.

This facility has scheduled passenger and freight service to most of the nation's major cities. Lambert field, however, is not adequate for current levels of flight operations, let alone future flight operation projections, the study shows.

There are two airports within the county in addition to Civic Memorial. They are Lakeside and Highland airports which are of minor significance in terms of the number of aircraft operations. The study shows they have grass runways and provide service for general aviation aircraft only.

Civic Memorial, however, is designed to handle corporate aircraft including light jets.

This facility can accommodate 100 flights per hour, including large twin engine and turbo-prop aircraft.

Tax-Supported Field
The airport is publicly owned and supported by taxes from five townships in the county. Expansion will be stimulated by the growth of general aviation, and because of the future need for a proper airport to serve the county.

Two years ago 120 planes were based at Civic Memorial. The FAA estimates there will be 236 planes at Civic by 1980. The airport now is reported to be the busiest general aviation airport in the St. Louis area with 143,000 take-offs and landings a year.

The highway, rail, water and air transportation facilities within or near the county have played a major role in the development of the county's industrial environment, the report notes, in addition to its land use patterns and its general economic and physical character.

The availability of alternate modes of transportation within the county will continue to be a dominant factor in the determination of the character of environment within the county.

Sister Provides Plane Ticket to Germany

"It is the biggest surprise of my life that after 50 years I am going to see my sisters again," Mrs. Frieda Postawko said this week after learning that a sister in Berlin has made arrangements for the 72-year-old former Granite City resident to fly to Europe for a visit.

Mrs. Postawko, who has made her home in St. Louis the past two years after residing in the 1900 block of Grand avenue most of her life, said she was "overjoyed and very excited" about her forthcoming trip.

She was advised this week that a plane ticket had been purchased in her name by a sister, Mrs. Anna Pottrich, a resident of Berlin's western sector, with whom Mrs. Postawko will stay for 40 days. Mrs. Pottrich is planning to drive to Cologne to meet the former local resident when she arrives. Travel arrangements also are in the process of being completed for a second sister, Mrs. Wally Kurchals, to visit West Berlin during the 40-day period. The latter resides at Brandenburg in Germany's East Zone.

Mrs. Postawko came to this country 50 years ago. It will be the first visit back to her homeland. Before suffering two heart attacks in recent years, she was employed for nearly 30 years as a cook at various restaurants and also worked in a shoe factory.

A member of the local Disabled Veterans' Auxiliary, Mrs. Postawko said Tuesday she expects to leave on her long-awaited trip "very shortly." "I am ready to go anytime they tell me the plane is ready to take off," she commented.

Nameoki Funds Show Some Budget Items Overspent

Closer adherence to budget maximums of the township's appropriation accounts was urged by Town Clerk Louis Whitsett of Nameoki township Monday night after a report of financial operations for the 1969-70 fiscal year revealed expenditures exceeding budget figures in seven of the various town fund accounts and in nine road and bridge fund accounts.

Whitsett pointed out that in most instances where 1969-70 budget figures were overspent the amounts involved were small, and that in no instance did the expenditures result in money deficits in the accounts. Actually, all township funds showed substantial balances at the end of the 1969-70 fiscal year on March 15, the clerk explained.

"Overspending the budget figures is not good financial policy," Whitsett said. "If that were permitted to become a general practice, there would be no point in having a budget." He said closer compliance with budgeted allotments for each township fund and account will be sought during the current 1970-71 fiscal year.

A public hearing on the 1970-71 township and road and bridge fund budgets is scheduled in the Nameoki township hall next Tuesday night. The appropriation bill has been on file for public inspection since late February and is subject to changes in the public hearing. The budget bill adopted at the hearing then is subject to approval at the annual town meeting which will be held this year on April 14 in the Long Lake Fire department hall at Pontoon Beach.

The report prepared by Whitsett shows excess-budget expenditure of $6.82 in the $2500 budget figure for compensation of the town clerk and a $20 excess expenditure over the $6240 budget figure for compensation of the highway commissioner. These two accounts are paid out of the town officers' compensation account of the town fund which ended the fiscal year with an overall budget balance of $2338, the report shows.

Largest excess-budget expenditure in the town fund was in the mosquito abatement account which was budgeted at $3500 and overspent by $591, according to the report. Other expenditures exceeding budget maximums in the town fund included the printing and publishing account, budgeted at $600 and overspent by $106; office equipment, budgeted at $500 and overspent $86; collector's expenses, budgeted at $500 and overspent $153, and auditing, budgeted at $300 and overspent $25.

Whitsett reported that budget items of the road and bridge fund which showed excess expenditures during the year included the material and supplies account for road maintenance purposes which was budgeted at $7500 and overspent by $392, and the operation of machinery account, also for road maintenance purposes, which was budgeted at $4000 and overspent by $531.

The account for repairs to machinery budgeted at $2500 was overspent by $1613 and an expenditure of $248 for outside labor was listed as an excess budget expenditure because no budget figure existed for that item, Whitsett's report showed.

Four budget items of the administration account in the road and bridge fund were overspent, Whitsett reported, resulting in an excess expenditure of $1744 in the total budget figure for the overall administration account.

Items of the administration account showing excess budget expenditures, the report said, included that for office help, budgeted at $600 and overspent by $180; for printing and publishing, budgeted at $50 and overspent by $35; auditing, budgeted at $150 and overspent by $50; and insurance and bonds, budgeted at $2500 and overspent by $2251.

In a supplemental treasurer's report showing fund balances at the end of the fiscal year, Whitsett said the township had a total of $60,168 on hand at the end of the fiscal year, plus an undetermined balance in the general fund. The general assistance fund is supervised by township Supervisor Harry Briggs, who will submit his annual report on that fund in a special town board meeting April 7.

Whitsett said that as of March 15 the town fund had a cash balance of $17,742; the road and bridge fund a balance of $3675; the special fund a balance of $25,892; the special bridge fund a balance of $98; and the Municipal Retirement fund a balance of $5777.

The larger balance in the special hard road fund includes a cash balance of $15,767 and a certificate of deposit in the amount of $10,000, plus $125 interest on the certificate, the report said.

Council Removes One Stop Sign— But Oks Another

A stop sign was eliminated Monday night by Granite City council, who went on to approve ordinances for installation of stop signs at another location and to prohibit littering along the drainage ditch paralleling East 23rd street.

The stop signs to be taken down are on 25th street at Center street, while the stop signs to go up will be on Prairie avenue at Primrose avenue.

The anti-littering ordinance provides for fines from $5 to $100 for violators. Alderman Paulos, who called for the ordinance, said persons have been dumping "all sorts of trash" from beer cans to old tires" along the storm water drainage ditch fence.

Referred to the Finance committee was a letter from George Crawford, traffic engineer and president of CBR Traffic Engineering firm, offering to conduct a survey of major thoroughfares in Granite City for the city for federal funds for major improvements, including a railroad underpass. Crawford said the city's cost of the survey, $22,000, could be financed with funds from a federal grant and with motor fuel tax funds.

Nann motioned for the letter to be placed on file, but with protests by Alderman Whitner, chairman of the Traffic committee, and Mayor Partney, who stressed the possibility of obtaining federal funds for a railroad underpass or overpass, Nann's motion was voted down.

The matter was referred to the Finance committee for study of the possibility of including the amount in the next budget. Whitner's request for the Traffic committee also to study the matter was ignored by the council.

Permit was given VFW Post 1300 to install a 30-foot driveway on Washington avenue at 21st street for a new parking lot, and placed on file was a letter from S.M. Wilson & Co. concerning responsibility for replacement of the surface of Namook road where the pavement was damaged by installation of a 96-inch city storm sewer in 1968. The firm stated its repair work had been approved by the resident engineer and the city.

City Atty. Scroggins was instructed to take legal action within a few days if a sewer connection is not installed to remove cesspool or septic tank at a residence in the 700 block of 27th place. The attorney said he understood the property was in the process of being sold.

ARTICLES HELPED CLUB WIN DISTRICT HONORS

To the Editor: Your publicity given to our club the past few years helped the Business and Professional Women to acquire the "club of the year" award, received at the district meeting in Litchfield March 8.

Your paper has been exceptionally generous. Without publicity, the public would not know the community involvement of our BPW members; each one deserves the same amount of credit.

Our club membership is extended to business and professional women in our locality. We extend to them a warm welcome to become members of our club and help elevate the standards of the working woman.

MORE CITIZENS SHOULD HONOR OUR WAR DEAD

To the Editor: I saw in Thursday's paper where Memorial Day is going to be honored again. The "parade of flags" is something that I always believed should have been done long ago.

What I mostly wonder about is, "How many people are going to take time out to view these honors?"

The patriotic people of this town show all the time, but you see about the same faces every year. Honor goes to all of them.

As far as just plain citizens attending, like I have said before, why can't we have a parade of flags?

The veterans' organizations need credit, also. I know there is an honor list at the hospital, but how many people have noticed it?

The population of this city at its peak and I bet if there would be free coffee and doughnuts, you wouldn't be able to move. But as long as it is just a ceremony, why can't we have a parade of flags?

This would give something to do instead of just reports about what "bad" they do.

They are our future citizens and I still believe that we should let them take a hand in our future America.

I hope this note doesn't disturb anyone who may have an opposite feeling. I just hope that more citizens show up for the memorial services that will be given for the boys who died for our country.

PARENTS VITAL TO ANTI-DRUG ABUSE CAMPAIGN

To the Editor: As principal of Emerson School, I was encouraging to see a parent from this school concerned enough about the drug problem to write a letter to the Forum March 19 ("Papers need parental help to avoid drugs").

Our club membership is extended to business and professional women in our locality. We extend to them a warm welcome to become members of our club and help elevate the standards of the working woman.

Forum, I would like to share with all parents in Granite City the letter I sent to the parents of upper grade students at Emerson:

"A newspaper editorial entitled 'Stepped-Up Attack on Drug Abuse' points out some problems that should be of interest to parents at Emerson school.

"The attack on drug abuse is being stepped up because of the growing toll of drug addiction in our country. The editorial stated that young people must be taught the great dangers inherent in using drugs before they get hooked. The problem in New York City is so acute that an average of three young people are dying each day from drug addiction.

"Much of the trouble today is that youngsters who are taking drugs are ignoring warnings they have received at home and in school. The editorial stated that 'somehow the anti-drug campaign is failing.' I think I know why they are failing, and we had an excellent example of it last Thursday night at PTA.

"Mr. Irving Miles, ex-drug addict and ex-convict, gave a talk to the PTA. He told us that he was in a drug habit and that he was in a drug habit and that he was in a drug habit.

"But at PTA last week only one sixth grade parent attended what 'bad' they do.

"This is the reason that $3.5 million can be spent on education and the program will still fail.

50 YEARS AGO

MARCH 26, 1920

A strong gale blew down several concrete pouring towers at the St. Louis Coca & Chemical Co. plant construction site here, causing a reported $25,000 damage. Four men working near the towers escaped injury.

H. O. Hirsch Co., St. Louis, low bidder at $25,521, was authorized to build an addition to Webster grade school.

Petitions are circulating for an election this spring in the Granite City, Gabaret, Braden, Central, Stallings, Sand Prairie and Bond school districts to form a community high school.

Two new credit men and women's clothing stores opened here this week. They are Harry Gould's store at 1127 Nineteenth street and Ryan's store at 19th and State streets.

Casualty Loss in Tax Return

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q How does the $100 deductible on a casualty loss work?

A The first $100 of a non-business casualty or theft loss is not deductible. Amounts over that can be deducted but the loss must be reduced by any insurance or other reimbursement received or expected to be received.

The $100 deductible applies to each loss. This is further explained in the 1949 instruction package.

Q I've been unable to get W-2 form from the job I had before I moved here. What should I do?

A If you cannot get this W-2, report all your income and withholding as accurately as you can and file your return on time. Explain why the W-2 is missing on the back of the Form 1040 and tell how you figured the withholding.

Q Last year my tax payment was not properly credited by IRS. What do I do to keep this from happening again?

A Put your Social Security number on your check or money order, make this payable to the Internal Revenue Service, and indicate what the payment is for.

Should your payment be separated from your return or notice accompanying it, this identifying material will assure that the payment is properly credited. Cash should never be sent through the mails.

Q My father never took out his citizenship papers. Does that mean I won't be able to claim him as a dependent?

A If he is a resident of the United States and the other dependency tests are met, you may claim him as a dependent.

Q Can I add my driver's license fees and auto tags to my other state and local taxes?

A These two items are generally not deductible.

Q Your auto tags could qualify, however, if this fee is based on the value of your car.

Q To claim the retirement income credit, is it necessary to have worked each of the last ten years?

A No, to qualify for this credit you need only have earned at least $20 in each of any ten calendar years before the current year.

Instructions for the schedule for claiming this credit may be found in the Form 1040 package.

Q If I pay someone to prepare my return, isn't he responsible for it being accurate?

A No, you the taxpayer are responsible for the accuracy of income and expenses reported on your return.

For this reason, it is advisable to check all the entries on the form before you send it in. Make sure, too, that the form you file has the label with your name, address and Social Security number attached.

Easter 'Bunny' Visits Children at Hospital

Youthful patients in the pediatric ward at St. Elizabeth Hospital were paid a surprise visit Tuesday morning by a life-size Easter "bunny," garbed in a white suit with long pink ears, who presented gifts of tiny wool yarn ducks, "flying hamburger" toys and various other "Ronald McDonald" gifts to each child.

For the second consecutive year, Mrs. Jeanette Walton of St. Louis, who portrays the Easter bunny, selected St. Elizabeth as one of ten area hospitals and children's homes she visited during the pre-Easter season.

The gift program and hospital tours are sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. David Embry, owners of McDonald's Drive-In restaurants in Granite City, East Alton and Belleville. The local couple provides the toys and Mrs. Embry assists Mrs. Walton in distributing the gifts.

Paul Powell to be Speaker At Clerks Convention Here

Secretary of State Paul Powell will be the principal speaker at a luncheon session of the annual convention of the Retail Clerks District Council No. 1 of Southern Illinois which will be held in Granite City Saturday and Sunday, April 11 and 12, it was announced today. Powell will speak Sunday afternoon during a day-long program of business sessions, committee reports, election of officers and other convention activities that are expected to attract more than 200 delegates and visitors. The Southern Illinois district embraces 36 Retail Clerks union chapters. The Retail Store Employees Local 435 of Granite City will host the convention to highlight observance of the local chapter's 70th anniversary, according to Hetty Sheppard, secretary-treasurer. The Granite City local was chartered in 1900 and now has approximately 600 members. General business of the convention will be conducted during the Sunday meeting, but committee meetings, officers' conferences and discussions with international, state and district officials participating will be held on Saturday. All sessions on both days are to be held at the Rose Bowl. The Sunday morning session April 12 will be convened with a call to order by William Herman, executive board member of the Granite City chapter, and the address of welcome by Mayor Donald Partney. Everett Jarvis, president of the district council, will introduce guests and open the convention session. The convention call will be given by Jack Falk, district secretary. Resolutions will be introduced.

Tax Estimates Due To IRS by April 15
"If you expect that your income tax and self-employment tax for 1970 will exceed by $40 or more the tax to be withheld from your wages, you should make a declaration of estimated tax," Jay C. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, said today. Estimates for 1970 are due by April 15, the same date that 1969 federal income tax returns are due. Philpott cautioned taxpayers who file estimated tax returns during 1970 to adjust their estimates to comply with the recently enacted Tax Reform Act of 1969. The estimated tax forms for 1970 do not show the changes made by the Tax Reform Act because it was necessary to print them before the law was enacted. Among the changes of general interest to taxpayers are these: the surcharge should be figured at 2 1/2% instead of last year's 10%.

The personal exemption should be increased to $625 from $600 for each allowable exemption including those for age and blindness. Other changes include a new low-income allowance providing up to $100 as a deduction for 1970, broader deductions for moving expenses, new limitations on charitable contributions of appreciated property, an increase in the limit on deductions for charitable contributions from 30 to 50%; changes relating to capital gains and losses, and more liberal rules for income averaging. These and other provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1969 are explained in IRS Publication 553, "Highlights of 1969 Changes in the Tax Law," available free from IRS office.

Council Holds Up Pay for 2 Women in Police Dept.

A possibility of court action loomed Monday night when Granite City council members voted not to pay salaries of two women assigned police desk duties by Mayor Partney on Feb. 1.

Separation of the pay for Mrs. Marge Hall and Mrs. Cleo Buttery was requested by Alderman Moerlein, chairman of the council's Finance committee, who said the committee had been advised that the mayor's appointments of the two women to duties are in conflict with city ordinances and the budget and were illegal.

The two women, who had been assigned to city hall switchboard and police department secretarial duties, have been paid for other two-week periods on the police desk since Feb. 1. The council had voted last month to return Mrs. Hall to the switchboard, even though the board was taken out on Feb. 1.

Objection was raised by Alderman Whitmer, who said that the two women "should not be victims of the mayor and council battle. They performed their work, and it would be unfair not to pay them. If the mayor is wrong, then the council should take the matter to court."

"Committee Reluctant"

Moerlein replied that the committee was reluctant to withhold the pay, but that to approve the salary payments would indicate the council sanctioned the assignments of the two women and would be a part of the "illegal action of the mayor."

Moerlein added, "You recall that the council voted to keep the two women in their original jobs as called for in the appropriation ordinance. The mayor has no right to make changes that conflict with the ordinance."

The council went on to vote approval of the remainder of the $47,121 payroll for the last half of March. Dissenting were Aldermen Rutledge, Whitmer and Jarrett. Absent were Aldermen Green and Baker.

Whitmer then called for a legal opinion from City Atty. Scroggins on the liability of the council if the salaries for the two women would be approved and what bearing it would have on any court action.

Bill List Problems
Approval was given a bill list totaling $63,491, following a discussion on separation of two items which later were approved for payment.

Alderman Davies called for separation of payment of $28,538 to G. H. Sternberg & Co. for the motor fuel tax improvement of Waterman avenue, saying driveway work was not completed and there were several soft spots in the street.

Sternberg was present and said the $10,000 balance due on the project would cover the repairs to the soft spots and the driveways, and the city engineer agreed. The soft spots developed, it was explained, when the street was paved over several damp spots to comply with the asphalt deadline of the state highway department.

Also separated temporarily at the request of Alderman Paulus was payment of $975 to the law firm of Lueders, Robertson & Konzen for services to the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners during a police department hearing. Moerlein advised Paulus the bill had been reviewed and payment recommended by the Finance committee.

Nom suggested that in the future, departments and commissions advise the council in advance of any plan to hire a lawyer. "Only the council can authorize expenditure of funds," he added.

Other major items on the bill list included $55,000 paid to Milam Corp.-East for disposal service in March and $3054 paid to Biebel Roofing Co. for a new roof on the main fire station.

Sick Leave, Car Repair

Council members also approved employee sick leave amounting to $1809 for the first half of March, and authorized payment of $98 to Glen T. Puhse, 2341 Rock road, for damage to his auto in an accident involving the city highway department van on March 18.

In other action pertaining to finances, the council approved a fund transfer resolution with $912 to be transferred from the sales tax account. Of the total, $409 will go to the school crossing guard account, $472 to the sewer extension account.

City Atty. Scroggins reported on the added fire protection tax allowed by County clerk, Eulalia Hotz. He said Miss Hotz advised him the new rate was based on recent state legislation permitting the increase and the fire protection tax levy approved by the city council. The council had voted down an increase in the fire protection rate, but the county clerk, Scroggins said, had an opinion that the increase was automatic.

Mayor Partney advised council members they should soon receive copies of his proposed budget for the 1971 fiscal year, and he appointed Alderman Robertson as chairman of the special negotiating committee to meet with unions representing city employees. Other members, named by the council, are Aldermen Dallas and Moerlein.

Investigate Vandalism

"Madison police were called at 11:25 p.m. Monday to Line Alley near the entrance to the Fox Industrial Park where youths were reported throwing rocks at workers leaving the Phelps-Dodge plant. Police said they found a board with spikes driven through it laying across the road, and a piece of munition with nails driven through it, apparently intended to puncture auto tires."

ABOUT THIS QUESTION:

"A blow-out threw our car out of control, and into an oncoming car. Two passengers in the other car were killed and the others were badly hurt. They were awarded $84,000, but my auto insurance pays only $20,000. Would a $100,000 Auto Liability Policy have cost only a few dollars more?"
